MEETINGS

If your meeting needs a flexible event space with modern facilities, creative catering, complimentary wifi and exceptional service, then ROARR! is the perfect starting point. Whether organising an intimate meeting for 20 or a conference for 100, we will help ensure it's a success and can advise on the meeting room and seating configuration that would best meet your needs.

Our extensive grounds within the Park are also available for team building activities, away days and BBQ's. Situated just outside Norwich and accessible from the newly opened NDR, ROARR! sits in a secluded setting with ample free car parking.

TEAM BUILDING

ROARR! is an extraordinary location to host your teambuilding away days offering quality venue facilities together with activities and fun to help you release your inner dinosaur.

Not only can we offer excellent quality food and drink throughout the day, either as a buffet in the Boardroom or a sit down meal in our Restaurant The Explorers, we can cater for all dietary needs.

For your team building entertainment we can also set up mini challenges for your group from a light-hearted treasure hunt around the Park to a ten minute escape room, you could always just let your delegates loose around the Park to find their own adventure.

Whatever your objectives and aims, the professional team at ROARR! are happy to accommodate and help ensure that our approach will meet your company objectives by getting everyone involved making it beneficial for individuals and your team as a whole.

Whether you want one hour or a day or evening of activity, make contact with our team who can talk you through the many options of our Corporate Membership and facilities available to you and create your unique experience.
